

PART 3 – Become a Gear Checking Clinic Presenter or Assessor

To become a presenter for Gear Checking, in Pony Club WA:

Benefits of being a presenter:

- Be part of a movement positively promoting rule changes
- Promote and help improve knowledge about safety and horse welfare
- Promote the Pony Club ethos that has prepared riders for the future
- Share your passion and experience for gear checking
- Be remunerated for your time (presenters fee is applicable)
- Meet amazing pony club members around WA
- See and travel around our beautiful state
- Choose the clinics that you want to present at, GCAP come to you with offers to present
- Presentation material is prepared for you.
- Presentation mediums available i.e. horse skulls, dilly box etc
- Receive support from the Pony Club WA Admin team

Submit an application to GCAP or State Coaching Panel via coaching@ponyclubwa.asn.au or gearchecking@ponyclubwa.asn.au with the following supporting documents:

1. Copy of your Certificate as an Accredited Gear Checker
2. Explanation and demonstration that you have competency as a presenter (have one of the below):
 - a. Already be a Pony Club WA coaching clinic presenter
 - b. Already work or have experience presenting to groups
 - c. Attend a presenter or trainers course. An example could be the Presenter training course presented by DSR. Another example could be the Cert IV in Training and Assessment
3. List two clinics that you have shadowed a Pony Club WA approved clinic presenter/s in gear checking
4. A letter of recommendation from the presenter of your second shadow clinic, verifying that you have in the second clinic successfully and competently presented at least 40% of the clinic and are a suitable presenter for future clinics.

You do not need to be an assessor, to also be a presenter. You do not need to be a presenter, to be an assessor. However the two roles can compliment each other.

To become an assessor for Gear Checking, in Pony Club WA:

Benefits of being an assessor:

- Help members take that last step towards getting accredited
- Provide mentorship and advice for members in their assessment
- Choose your assessment appointments, GCAP comes to you with assessments to consider
- Meet and interact with wonderful people around WA
- Travel around the state
- Remuneration can be negotiated, so you can opt to volunteer as an assessor, or request reimbursement/remuneration
- Assessment material is prepared for you, you just assess the candidates
- Receive support from the Pony Club WA Admin team

Submit an application to GCAP or State Coaching Panel via coaching@ponyclubwa.asn.au or gearchecking@ponyclubwa.asn.au with the following supporting documents:

1. Copy of your Certificate as an Accredited Gear Checker
2. Explanation and demonstration that you have competency as an assessor (have one of the below):
 - a. Already be a Pony Club WA coaching assessor (of coaches)
 - b. Already be a Pony Club WA coaching assessor (of riders for their efficiency certificates)
 - c. Already work or have experience assessing candidates for competencies.
 - d. Attend a presenter or trainers course. An example could be the Presenter training course presented by DSR. Another example could be the Cert IV in Training and Assessment.
3. List as a minimum one assessment day or appointment, that you have shadowed a Pony Club WA approved assessor in gear checking (practical or written assessments).
4. A letter of recommendation from the assessor that you shadowed, verifying that you are a suitable assessor for written, practical or both gear checking assessment forms.

You do not need to be an assessor, to also be a presenter. You do not need to be a presenter, to be an assessor. However the two roles can compliment each other.