HISTORY OF THE HICKSTEAD EVENT

A Hickstead, by definition, is a Showjumping competition, which originates from a Derby style competition at Hickstead, England. This incorporates “natural” obstacles, such as brush, ditches, banks, stonewalls, water and several rustic Showjumping fences. Australian Pony Clubs and other organisations have developed a competition within a slightly different context. It has become a means of running a competition involving cross-country fences and show jumping fences when a venue does not have sufficient space for a full cross-country course and/or where personnel are in short supply. A Hickstead competition may be as a mini horse trial, competitors complete a dressage test (optional event inclusion), then complete the combination Showjumping/cross-country course.
